

THE MARIAN ANDERSON STRING QUARTET
CHAMBER MUSIC INSTITUTE
“Creating New and Diverse Audiences”

The Marian Anderson String Quartet is pleased to announce the Third Annual Chamber Music Institute will be held at Bryan High School, June 5th through June 13th, 2008. Through intensive rehearsals, coaching sessions, master classes, formal and educational outreach performances, students of all ages will discover and refine their skills as string players through the study of chamber music. Chamber Music has been proven to teach necessary skills in leadership, communication, and cooperation.

Driven by their belief in the power of education, for nearly two decades the Marian Anderson String Quartet has performed in hundreds of churches, libraries, museums, soup kitchens and prisons. They have brought their craft to countless children across the America. The goal of the Marian Anderson String Quartet Chamber Music Institute is to promote awareness of great art music and to nurture artistry in underserved communities. More information about The Marian Anderson String Quartet Chamber Music Institute may be found on our website www.marianandersonstringquartet.com. Thank you.
